

During the service, Martin Cawte presented Jacob with a children's bible and a baptism candle.

The children at the service who had previously been baptised, are encouraged by their vicar to take their candles when invited to a Christening.

The picture shows Godmother Mollie using Jacob's candle to light those brought along by the little girls.

Martin also presented baptism certificates to Jacob's parents and the godparents.

