

The next morning - Easter Day, at our East Garston Holy Communion service, Jessica and Mollie took their First Communion. The Venerable Christine Allsopp who officiated at the service, presented them with their baptism candle and their certificate and study book both signed by Bishop Andrew.

The baptism sponsors of Mollie and Jessica - Julie Clayton and Sally Wright gave a First Communion card to each and a framed photograph of their first communion occasion.

The congregation were strong in their support for the step that Jess and Mollie had bravely undertaken. There are now signs in the parish that others might follow suit.

The next step, but for another day, is to be the baptism of Jessica-May and Craig's baby son Jacob, when Mollie will be Godmother. This will take place on 10 April at All Saints Church, East Garston.
