

The Baptism of Jacob Quelch

Sunday 10 April 2016

Just two weeks after his mother Jessica-May, was baptised and confirmed by The Bishop of Reading, The Rt Revd Andrew Proud, on Easter Eve at Reading Minster – the Church of St Mary the Virgin, baby Jacob was baptised.

Both Jacob's mother and his Godmother Mollie, were keen and regular participants in festivals and events at East Garston Church during their teenage years. So it was especially pleasing to welcome the family back for the baptism of Jess and Craig's son

On a cold but bright Sunday, parents Craig and Jessica-May brought Jacob with about forty family and friends including seven very attentive children, to All Saints Church East Garston, where The Revd Martin Cawte led the ceremony of welcoming Jacob into the church.

Photography: Martyn Wright
Text: Sally Wright

All Saints Church, East Garston
Sunday 10 April 2016

HOLY BAPTISM

Jacob Christopher Daniel Quelch

Parents:

Craig Quelch and Jessica-May Coates

Godparents:

Mollie Coates Prictoe
Craig Williams

Service conducted by:
The Revd Martin Cawte

Organist:

Susan Holmes

