

Kings Betty Lee and Bertie Frost relax while waiting to make the journey to see Baby Jesus but Charlie Coleman is very excited and almost misses his entrance much to the annoyance of the Star who had been doing such a good job of guiding the Kings.

The Bible passages that were used to describe the key stages of the story were very ably read by Oliver Tulloch, James Brooks, Alex Brown and Emily Clayton.

A donation taken from the collection has been made to the Childrens' Society.

After the service most of the performers and the congregation enjoyed a well-earned tea party in the Village Hall.